FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Will there be a virtual element to the 2022 Annual Conference?
The 2022 Annual Conference is scheduled to take place fully in-person at the Caribe Royale Orlando in Orlando, Florida. At this time, CIVSA does not plan to have virtual programming for the 2022 Annual Conference.

What is the cancellation policy if I become sick prior to the Annual Conference?
Please review the Cancellation Policy at https://civsa.org/annual-conference/.

What happens if my institution cancels all travel after I have registered and paid for the Annual Conference? Will I receive a refund?
Please review the Cancellation Policy at https://civsa.org/annual-conference/.

What are the health and safety measures for the 2022 Annual Conference?
By returning to an in-person format, the 2022 Annual Conference is an opportunity for you to engage in meaningful conversations and educational sessions in an in-person format. As always, CIVSA takes the health and safety of its conference attendees extremely seriously, and we will continue to do so leading up to and throughout the 2022 Annual Conference.

CIVSA will work closely with and follow the recommendations of the CDC and the Florida COVID-19 Response as it relates to face coverings, testing, social distancing and other safety measures. We will also continue to work closely with our host hotel.

As we approach the Annual Conference, watch for additional information as it relates to safety practices as you travel to and experience the 2022 Annual Conference in Orlando. We may require evidence that attendees are fully vaccinated and/or proof of a negative COVID-19 test immediately before the Annual Conference. Details will be shared as we get closer to the Annual Conference and as guidelines are updated throughout the country.

What is the dress code for the Annual Conference?
Casual to casual business attire is recommended. We suggest packing a light jacket or sweater for the air-conditioned conference rooms and for cooler nights.
