ANGELS IN AMERICA

Part One: Millenium Approaches

The Pulitzer-prize-winning play by Tony Kushner

Directed by Reid Davis

7:30 p.m. LeFevre Theatre

The Saint Mary's Performing Arts Theatre Program presents Angels in America, Tony Kushner's play depicting the cruelty and terror of the AIDS crisis. Two couples struggle with their relationships as both government and medical agencies fail to take action and save lives. Honored with the Pulitzer Prize, Kushner's play is regarded as one of the most important works of late 20th century theatre.

Enclosed in your packet please find a two-for-one ticket voucher, which may be used to purchase two half-price adult tickets for the Saturday Nov. 13th performance. One voucher per family. The box office opens at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are subject to availability and performance contains adult subject matter and strong language.

*The current exhibit in the Heart Art Gallery is Gifted Hands: the Fine Art of Craft, featuring 90 objects by 15 contemporary San Francisco Bay Area artists. These artists transform glass, textiles, fiber, metal, precious and semi-precious stones, clay, wood, fallen logs, and sea shells into extraordinary works of art: furniture, wearable art, jewelry, pottery, quilts, turned wooden bowls, blown and fused glass, and fabric, wood, and metal sculpture. *The Exhibit will be open from 11:00 a.m. through 4:30 p.m.
